President's Message

I have to start out with an apology for not getting more President's Messages out to you (this one is long over due). I would like to start out with just a couple of reminders of some very important tournaments that will be here before you know it. I don't know if the newsletter will reach you before our Summer Major but it will be held this time on Sunday August 21st; watch the web site for your tee times. Also before you know it our Club Championship will be here which is to be held September 17th & 18th. The Players Invitational is October 1st and our Member-Guest tournament (Jeff Shelton Memorial) will be held October 22nd. For additional information regarding any of these tournaments contact Dean McCabe or Gary Deckinger, their contact information can be found on our web site <http://www.rvmgc.com>.

You may have heard me mention at our tournaments or talked to other board members, but in October it will be time to elect new officers for your 2006 board. If you know of any current members that you feel would be a good addition to the board or you, yourself, might be interested please let us know. The way that it is shaping up, we will have a number of vacancies. To keep the club moving forward and not becoming stagnated we need new blood and ideas. I believe Robert (VP) Sakahara will also be discussing this in his message to you as well. Not to be redundant, we just want to make sure the word gets out to any member that may wish to step up.

With our season half over (but with a lot of golf still to play) here are just a couple of quick reminders. Please continue to do everything that you can to eliminate slow play from our club. For the most part everyone has been doing a fantastic job in keeping up the pace but at a couple of events some of the Board Members had to give out warnings which we hate to do. So any extra effort on your part to keep up with the group in front of you will be greatly appreciated. Also if you are unsure of any rules during play (tournaments or not) don't be afraid to ask your playing partners for assistance. I know that it is very easy to settle into a pattern of your own method of play but sometimes this can be contrary to the official USGA rules that we follow during tournaments which could be the difference of placing or not placing in a tournament if you were penalized or even being disqualified.

Oh here another reminder. Jim Bell sent out an e-mail to all of you asking for your input regarding our Holiday party in December. This year's party is scheduled for Friday, December 30th, which was the only Friday/Saturday Cascades had available. We are entertaining the idea of having it on a week night, Thursday, December 22 to be more specific, for the purpose of getting it in before Christmas, and we would like to hear from those who plan to attend, what your thoughts may be. Please take a moment to consider and get back to Jim or any Board Member with your input.

Best Regards
